

Ratio - Two Quantities

- 1) Siberian tigers can weigh up to 362 kg while African lions can weigh up to 250 kg. Compare the ratio of the weight of a Siberian tiger to that of an African lion.

- 2) Typically, children have 20 milk teeth and adults have 32 permanent teeth. What is the ratio of permanent teeth to milk teeth?

- 3) A triangle ABC has interior angles of 40° and 110°. Find the ratio of the two sides opposite to the angles.

- 4) Susan prepared 1.5 litres of orange juice for a pool party. Find the ratio of the volume of orange juice to the volume of water.

- 5) Gwen went on a long drive with her friend Nicola. Gwen drove 132 km and Nicola covered 184 km. Find the ratio of the distance driven by Gwen to the distance driven by Nicola.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

al angle measures.

ange juice for her
the volume of