Multiplying Fractions - Arrays

Sheet 3

1)

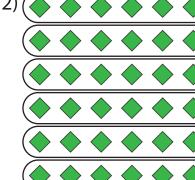

This illustration shows 25 circles divided equally into 5 rows.

$$\frac{1}{5}$$
 of 25 = number of circles in each row =

$$\frac{3}{5}$$
 of 25 = number of circles in 3 rows

$$\frac{3}{5} \times 25 =$$
 circles

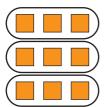

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

ed equally into 6 rows.

3)

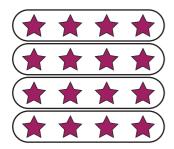

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

equally into 3 rows.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

4)

This illustration shows 16 stars divided equally into 4 rows.

$$\frac{1}{4}$$
 of 16 = number of stars in each row = _____

$$\frac{3}{4}$$
 of 16 = number of stars in 3 rows

$$\frac{3}{4} \times 16 =$$
_____ stars