

Oxymoron

Underline the oxymoron in each sentence.

Example: Your lies might get us into a fine mess someday.

1) The players clearly misunderstood what the coach had instructed.

2) Aaron is the second best student in the class.

3) Although they have been together for years, they still seem to be acting still alone together.

4) Allen got to know the teacher better than his own father.

5) There was a sad smile on her face.

6) A small crowd of people gathered around the accident.

7) Using plastic glasses, she drank the juice.

8) Today's lesson was about virtual reality.

9) Mrs. Anderson spoke about extinct life during the last class.

10) Everyone thinks Dan is a sure bet for the baseball team.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com